System Is Retroactive.

The bonus system is retroactive and failure is penalized with a negative failure is penalized with a negative charge. The plan often works a hardship on men who are not directly at fault. This is because the bonuses are a premium on production. If a shell or a gun shows a fault, so that it is rejected, a charge is made against every person who had a hand in producing it.

Through an unavoidable accident one foreman lost his bonus for a year, which he figured would run to $4,500, and got into debt besides. He was superintending the casting of a large quantity of valuable metal when a heavy chain broke and the metal was heavy chain broke and the metal was a leave that the will be the control of the chain regularly supplied from neavy chain broke and the metal was ost. The chain, regularly supplied from the stores, had been tested and guaranteed.

It has been remarked that some of the younger foremen, many of whom are graduates of technical schools, have obtained enough bonuses in a year to buy comfortable homes. The grand total of bonuses paid last year is estimated to have been between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000.

No $1,000,000 Bonuses.

Reports that an official of the company last year received a bonus of head of the blg concern said that he had never made any such statement, and deprecated the publication of the report because of passible dissatisfac-tion among other employes. 'Men who know these statements are "Some of the officials at the steel works receive handsome salaries, because they earn them, and some of the mechanics and other workmen receive handsome wages, also because they are worthy of their hire, but my chief concern is the payroll, from which every-bedy gets something, and I am not especially busy in trying to make one or two millionaires."

Denies Receiving $600,000.

Arch Johnson, vice president of the Bethlehem Steel Company, whom the report mentioned as having received in bonuses last year, said there was no truth in it. President Eugene Grace and Vice President Johnston, after many years of hard work, have, during the war boom, realized on their efforts, but neither of them ever made anything like a million, or $60,000 in a single year.

"I'd rather have $1,000,000," said the superintendent, and then he explained what he could do with $1,000,000.
"Exactly," responded Mr. Grace. "I think we had better go about it in the big way right off, and if you make a requisition for $1,000,000, with your plans as you outline them, it will be honored."
When the war orders came that department was able to turn out its product at an astonishing rate, and enabled Mr. Schwab to demonstrate to Lord Kitchener that he was equipped.

Stinging Pen Brings Woe to Student-Editor

COLUMBIA, Mo., March 7.-Walter Clare Martin, a student at the University of Missouri, and editor of a called the Research, has been expelled fro mthe university. He was accused of making "reckless and inexcusable publication of defamatory charges against fellow-students." Merwas a senior in the university, a Phi Beta Kappa, a debater and twice winner of the Field poetry prize.

The Research attacked the athletic system of the school, and also the city council of Columbia. Shortly after the appearance of the January number, Martin sald he was abduced by four men and taken into the country where his hair was cut in irregular rows and his face painted with iodine.

Hobbs, Lester Butler blamed his bride of less than a month.

Butler said that his wife was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs. The Hobbs wedding was in January. Butler married Anna M. Mills on February S.

It was right afterward, Butler said, thatd his bride told him about the Hobbs wedding presents, and pointed out how much superior they were to the Butlers' own meager gifts. Right there the burglary plot was planned, which Butler successfully carried out, he said. Mrs. Butler was arrested later.

IN MEMORIAM

FRAIN-In loving remembrance of my dear father, DAVIS M. FRAIN, who departed this life ten years ago today, larch 1, 1998. If I had seen you at the last and held your dying hand and heard the last stigh from your heart I would not feel so bad. I did not know the pain you hore, I did not see you die; I only know you went away and never said good-by.

BY HIS LOVING DAUGHTER KATE.

FRAIN—In loving remembrance of my dear mother, MARIA FRAIN, who departed this life eight years ago today, March 7, 1988, Over my heart in the years that have flown No love like yours, mother, ever las shown, Tirsd of the hollow, the felise, the untrue. Mother, oh mother, my heart longs for you. BY HER LOVING DAUGHTER KATE, Opportunity for advancement, $22 PM to start. (Notices for this column are accepted at 50 cents flat, either prose or poetry, in case notice does not exceed ten lines. And 10 cents for each line in excess of ten.)
